

Intern (m/f) Station Management and Operations Lufthansa Group

Start Date: Dec 2017 – 6 months

Stockholm/Arlanda

The Lufthansa stationworld in Sweden is looking for you as a new intern. Our small team is located at Stockholm – Arlanda Airport, Sweden. From here we are steering and controlling all our LH Group operations in Sweden. All interns are fully integrated into the team while working on their own projects as well as supporting the daily business.

Your Tasks

- Support of the Lufthansa Group Station Team (Lufthansa, Swiss, Austrian)
- Quality Management in flight- and aircraft handling
- Updating of monthly statistics / reports
- Supervision checks at aircraft side
- Monitoring of station handling processes
- Preparing of presentations for quality and strategic meetings
- Participation in the daily operational business

Your Profile

- Enrolled student (transport economics, transport engineering) with a specialization and high passion for aviation (5th semester or higher)
- Strong analytical skills and excellent MS Office skills (especially MS Excel & MS PowerPoint)
- Very good English skills, written and oral
- Own initiative, commitment and organizational talent
- Team-oriented, motivated and energetic personality
- Intercultural competence
- Clean criminal record for airport ID

If you want to be part of our team for a period of six months and if you like to experience Scandinavia in winter time, please send us your application (full CV and motivation letter) in English to:

arn.stationmanagement@dlh.de

Deadline: 30th September 2017